

Student Honors Recital

Institute participants have the opportunity to perform in two Student Honors Recitals, at the noon concerts. If you would like to be considered as a soloist for the student recital, you are invited to audition by submitting a YouTube video of a well-polished and memorized piece with accompaniment (if applicable). It is an honor to be selected and candidates must demonstrate good posture and high quality technique and musicianship. The piece you submit will be your performance piece. Consideration will also be given to a variety of ages, levels and instruments. Application and recordings must be postmarked on or before May 20, 2018.

Students will be notified by the first week in June if selected, and practice time with the accompanist will be arranged. Dress clothes are required for Honors Recital performances.
